LANSING TAKES FIRM POSITION

Declines to Arbitrate the Lusitania Dispute.

QUESTION OF NATIONAL HONOR

Administration Is Said to Be Determined to Maintain Its Demand for Complete Disavowal by Germany and Payment of Indemnity for American Lives Lost.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The United States has shut off completely any hope of a settlement of the Lusitania controversy with Germany through the machinery of international arbitration.

This fact, obtained from an official source, indicates the extent to which Secretary Lansing has barred the mailed fist in his demand for an unconditional disavowal by Germany.

The refusal to arbitrate, it is learned, is based on the ground that the "vital interests and national honor" of the United States being involved, the matter is one which cannot be submitted to arbitration.

It is the second time such a proposal has been turned down and it was rejected definitely and finally, it is reliably said, at the last conference which the secretary of state had with Ambassador Bernstorff.

The first proposition, it is recalled, was made shortly after the Lusitania was sunk. At that time it was rejected on the ground that the United States had no assurances that, pending an arbitral decision by The Hague court, to which Germany proposed to submit the dispute, Germany would not continue sinking merchant vessels without warning.

Berlin Partly Yields.

Subsequently, however, Germany informed the United States she had rescinded her former orders to submarine commanders and that henceforth the rules of international law, requiring due warning and care for the safety of passengers and crews, would be strictly lived up to.

On the occasion of his last conference with Mr. Lansing and in the light of the assurances just referred to, it is said, Count von Bernstorff renewed the proposition, the sole question to be submitted to arbitration being that relating to disavowal.

Germany, he said, greatly deplored the loss of American lives on board the Lusitania and was willing to demonstrate the extent of her regrets by paying an indemnity. She could not, the ambassador insisted, admit that the attack without warning on the Lusitania was illegal.

This attack he is said to have insisted was a reprisal against Great Britain's illegal blockade. International law, he argued, recognizes that reprisals are legal. There is nothing in international law, the ambassador contended, which states that reprisals cannot be undertaken if they endanger the lives of neutrals. That being the case, he said, the assumption was that neutrals should keep out of harm's way when plain warning is given that reprisals are to be resorted to.

Secretary Lansing is reported to have replied that the right of the Americans to be on board the Lusitania could not be questioned and that their right to the protection which international law accords to neutrals on the high seas was too firmly established to admit of debate.

MORE CANADIANS TO SAIL

Twenty Thousand Additional Troops Will Be Sent to War.

Ottawa, Feb. 1.—Twenty thousand more Canadian troops will be dispatched overseas in the near future, General Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, announced. He said the war office had called for twenty more battalions and was providing transports for them.

This call has been awaited eagerly by forty Canadian regiments which have been trained to a point where they will be able to take the field after a few weeks' final preparation in England.

The twenty regiments about to be dispatched will be selected on the basis of merit from among those training in Canada.

SWEDEN NAMES PEACE MEN

Mayor of Stockholm to Head Delegation to Ford Body.

Stockholm, Feb. 1.—The Swedish delegates on the Ford permanent peace board will be Carl Lindhagen, mayor of Stockholm; Professor Ernst Wigforss of the University of Lund; Dr. Frida Steinhoff, author and suffragist; Professor Johan Bergman of the University of Stockholm and Professor Hans Larsson of the University of Lund.

HOUSE GETS ONLY EXPENSES

President's Emissary to Europe Draws No Pay.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Secretary Lansing told the house foreign affairs committee that Colonel E. M. House, who is making a tour abroad, as the personal representative of President Wilson, is drawing no pay and gets only his expenses.

Secretary Lansing urged the necessity of increasing the department's secret fund, for which he and President Wilson alone are responsible, from $75,000 to $150,000.

JOYOUS NEWS TO GERMANY

Press Pleased With Lansing's Ruling on Armed Vessels.

Berlin, Feb. 1.—The Berliner Zeitung, the first newspaper to comment on Secretary Lansing's note on submarine warfare and merchant vessels, declares the news that the note is designed to forbid the arming of merchant vessels is of a joyous kind, as it is regarded as a warship and points out warships have the right to remain in a neutral port only twenty-four hours—far less than the necessary time to unload or load a vessel.

"The strict carrying out of Secretary Lansing's proposals would certainly be in accordance with international law," it adds. "It has long been clear to every sane thinker that in war time armed merchantmen are no longer to be considered peaceful vessels, but rather at least as auxiliary warships."

WILL VOTE IN APRIL OR MAY

Special Session May Amend South Dakota Primary.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Feb. 1.—The issuance of a call by Governor F. M. Byrne, fixing Feb. 8 as the date for the convening of a special session of the legislature, bears out predictions that such a session would be called.

As the lowest and most conservative estimate of the cost of a special session of the legislature will cost only from $6,000 to $8,000, the special session was considered the best method of straightening out the difficulties which have confronted Republicans of South Dakota for several weeks.

Had a special primary election been held in April the regular primary election would also have had to be held on June 6, at a cost equal to the special. The calling of the special session of the legislature and the changing of the primary election date to April or May will make but one primary election necessary, for delegates to the national convention can be elected and candidates can be nominated by the different parties at the same time.

Airships Raid English Coast.

London, Feb. 1.—A raid by seven Zeppelin airships took place over the eastern, northeastern and midland coast of England, according to an announcement of the war office. A number of bombs were dropped, but up to the present no considerable damage has been reported.

BRITISH STEAMER THOUGHT LOST STEAMS INTO HAMPTON ROADS WITH GERMAN FLAG FLYING

The Federal Court Finds that the National Cash Register Company Violated the Anti-Trust Act—Defense in Mohr Murder Case Rests—Quarter of the Naval Academy Students Will Be Asked to Resign—President Wilson Refuses to Comment on Appam Affair.

(By United Press)

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 1.—The most daring feat of the war was revealed today when the missing British steamer Appam, flying the German flag, sped into Hampton Roads at 5.45 this morning with a German prize crew on board. Twelve Germans, presumably from a German submarine comprised the prize crew that captured 166 passengers and the crew of 134. They turned the vessel about after it was thought lost in a heavy sea and raced across the Atlantic, eluding the British warships patrolling the American coast reaching port in safety.

The exploit of the German sailors is unparalleled in history. Scores of Germany prisoners were being taken to London on board the Appam and it is believed these were liberated and armed, in which event they were able to assist the submarine crew in the venture.

A German Merchant Raider Captured the Ship Appam

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 1.—A German raider, and not a submarine, captured the Appam, according to the story of persons aboard the vessel. The account is as thrilling as any private story. Lieutenant Berg and 20 men came aboard from the German merchant raider and when they put away Lieut. Berg was placed in command. He said he came here because he was sure of receiving decent treatment.

Passengers on board the Appam say the raider that captured their vessel had been working in and around the Canary Islands and that many passengers that had been taken during the raiding were put aboard the Appam by the commander of the vessel that effected the capture.

Probably Will be Interned

Washington, Feb. 1.—Collector of Customs Hamilton, at Norfolk, has officially reported that the Appam, armed as a commerce raider by the Germans, captured at least two vessels. If this is true it means that the Appam must be interned until the war is over.

President Wilson Greatly Interested

Chicago, Feb. 1.—The United Press told President Wilson of the Appam story, and he seemed greatly interested but was unwilling to comment on the affair until the official report was received.

Michele Grasiano, an ex-convict, was caught with this bomb in a suitcase in New York's $8,000,000 Municipal Building the other day. Leonardo De Vizio, another ex-convict, was arrested later as his partner.

It is charged by the police that Blackhanders had a plot to blow up public buildings. Their purpose was to prove to the victims of their blackmail—Italian bankers and merchants—that they could defy the police. An expert who examined the bomb said it was strong enough to rock the building.

PREDICTS BOOM IN MONTANA OIL FIELDS

Helena, Mont., Feb. 1.—Development of Montana oil wells has scarcely begun, in the opinion of Thomas Arthur of Billings, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, and an old time oil operator. Mr. Arthur is interested in the Wyoming-Montana field and producing wells have been struck on ground owned by two companies in which he is interested.

"Real capital is just beginning to come into Montana for the development of oil wells," said Mr. Arthur. "I have been surprised at the number of capitalists from Oklahoma, California and other oil fields that are being attracted here. Next spring development will be pushed on an extensive scale."

Mr. Arthur is of the opinion that the chief operations in the southern Montana field will be conducted in Carbon, Sweet Grass, Musselshell and Stillwater counties. He says the geologists have traced the oil domes and that the oil bearing strata have a northwest-southeast strike; that a line projected from Salt Creek, Wyo., to the Big Snowy mountains in Montana, will pass through every oil dome of consequence.

SHORTAGE IS MADE GOOD

Former Auditor of South Dakota County Goes to Prison.

Salem, S. D., Feb. 1.—Padding county accounts, issuing fraudulent warrants and failing to record taxes paid were favorite methods used by James Smyth and A. Erick Ecklein, former treasurer and auditor of McCook county, respectively, in defrauding taxpayers, according to E. L. Lampy, assistant state accountant.

Lampy's report to the governor indicates that Smyth misappropriated $5,167.97, chiefly tax receipts omitted from the records, school interest moneys not credited and fees for which receipts were given and later erased. These shortages have all been paid, Mr. Lampy reported.

Ecklein acknowledged, says Lampy in his official report, that he had pocketed $2,062.18 on forged and fraudulent warrants and $2,737.22 by presenting excessive bills for payment by the county commissioners.

When arrested Ecklein pleaded guilty to malfeasance in office and was sentenced to the penitentiary by Judge J. W. Jones in circuit court. The pecuniaries of both officials have been made good.

INDIANS RESTORED TO ROLL

UNITED STATES READY FOR WAR

President Says Navy Is in the Pink of Condition.

INADEQUATE ONLY IN SIZE

Chief Executive Informs Large Audience at Chicago That Administration Means Business in Defense Program—Says Army Is Not Large Enough for Ordinary Peace Duties.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—The United States has made preparation for immediate war, as far as the navy is concerned, although the present naval force is inadequate in size, President Wilson declared in an address before several thousand persons in the Auditorium here.

"We mean business," he said, in speaking of the preparedness plans of the administration.

"We have given to the present fleet of the United States an organization such as it has never had before, I am told by Admiral Fletcher," the president said, "and we have made preparation for immediate war so far as the navy is concerned."

The army, the president said, as at present constituted, "is not large enough even for the ordinary duties of peace."

The president repeated his warnings that no time must be lost in strengthening the defenses of the nation.

"When I see some of my fellow citizens spread their where the sparks are falling I wonder what their ideal of Americanism is," he said. America, the president said, has been cruelly misjudged by the nations at war.

"I know that on the other side of the water there has been a great deal of cruel misjudgment with regard to the reasons why America has remained neutral. Those looking at us from a distance do not feel the strong pulses of ideals and principles that are in us."

Our Mission One of Peace.

"They do not feel the conviction of America that our mission is a mission of peace and that righteousness cannot be maintained as a standard in the midst of arms. They do not realize that back of all our energy we are a body of idealists much more ready to lay down our lives for a thought than for a dollar."

"They suppose, some of them, that we are holding off because we can make money while others are dying—the most cruel misunderstanding that any nation has ever had to face—so wrong that it seems almost useless to try to correct it, because it shows that the very fundamentals of our life are not comprehended or understood."

Rulers, not public opinion, brought about the present war, Mr. Wilson declared.

"I thank God there is no man in the United States who has the authority to bring war without the consent of the nation," he said.

The task of the United States, he said, is to assert the principles of law in a world in which the principles of law have broken down.

"We are not now thinking of invasion of the territory of the United States," the president declared. "That is not what is making us think. We are not asking ourselves shall we be prepared only to defend our own homes and our own shores."

GLAD HAND AT MILWAUKEE

President Wilson Is Given Enthusiastic Reception.

Milwaukee, Feb. 21.—The largest crowds that have yet turned out to hear the president on his present tour faced him as he entered the Auditorium here. The three-quarters of a mile drive from his hotel was between dense crowds that blocked all sidewalk traffic. Although the air was chill and a raw wind whipped over the city the president made the trip in an open car.

Meantime an audience of 3,000 had been waiting, some of them for hours. The police estimated that 5,000 were turned away.

When the president arrived the crowd stood and cheered. The band played "America." The committee of 300 on the stage started to sing, the president joining and the big house caught the air and joined in the chorus.

Mrs. Wilson occupied a box near the stage with Dr. Grayson. She wore a magnificent bouquet of orchids.

"I want at the outset to remove any misapprehension in your minds," said the president. "There is no crisis; nothing new has happened."

HERALD SUPPORTS BUCKMAN
The Sauk Centre Herald prints without comment, but with a half-tone cut, the Bemidji Pioneer's half column reasons for its support of C. B. Buckman for congress. This looks like one on Harold Knutson!—St. Cloud Times.

Newspapers of the district still keep the name of Buckman before the people as the logical candidate for congress. Mr. Buckman will win the nomination with ease.—Pillager Herald.

The establishment of a forest reserve within the Red Lake Indian reservation is raising much opposition among the Indians and several delegations have gone to Washington to fight the measure.

An average day's work with a two-horse walking plow is a little less than 1 1/4 acres, while an average day's work for a three-horse sulky plow is between 2 and 2 1/2 acres, and Ford's tractor is still to be tried out.

The Deerwood Times comments on the receipt at the postoffice in that town of over a ton of Sears, Roebuck & Co.'s catalogues, at a cost in postage to the sender of $45.90. The Times very truly says in comment that "it pays to advertise."

An authority says that farm surveys show that the families living on their own farms generally consume more food per year than do families living on rented farms, but they do not furnish the explanation which would be interesting.

Hon. Chas. H. Warner of Aitkin, has decided to not run for congress from the sixth district, but will be a candidate for the legislature from Aitkin county. Charley is one of the best men in the legislature and one who always looks after the interests of Northern Minnesota. He is already being groomed as the next speaker of the house, says the Pillager Herald.

The efficiency and economy commission has asked C. A. Lindbergh to appear before them and explain some of his ideas as to the evils of state government and his remedy for them, which he has said was one of his reasons for becoming a candidate for governor at the present election —that he might remedy the same. The congressman will attend the hearings of the commission beginning Feb. 7.

Little Falls is about to realize the anticipations of a public building which have been cherished by that city for some years, and unless there are delays in regard to local matters connected with the construction work on the building will be started soon. The word "soon" being used in a government sense. The Little Falls building will be of brick and stone trimmings, and will face on Broadway, and its early completion will be a great advantage to that city, in fact every city of importance enough to support a free delivery service should be given a public postoffice building in which to transact the business.

Representative Warner has concluded not to be a candidate for congress in the sixth district. At present there are three candidates, C. B. Buckman of Little Falls, Harold Knutson of Stearns county and J. J. Opsahl of Bemidji. It is recognized that Mr. Buckman has a considerable lead over the other candidates, and it has been suggested that the others hold an elimination convention and unite on some candidate to down Mr. Buckman. The elimination process is not so popular as it was a couple of years ago when it was tried in the governorship fight, and the indications are that there will be none.—Pine River Sentinel.

Morrison county will send an anti-Lynch delegation, headed by P. J. Vasaly, to the democratic state conference at St. Paul on Thursday. The convention that elected the delegation instructed them to vote for candidates to the national convention at St. Louis "who are opposed to the continuance in the position of national committeeman of Fred B. Lynch." The resolution raised a storm of protest but when the vote was taken but seven votes were recorded against it and it was passed by a large majority. The fight on the national committeeman in Morrison county has probably been the most bitter of any section in Minnesota, if possible, and the faction of the democratic party headed by the Vasalys have the local situation well in hand, judging from the result of party councils.

ROBBERS CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS

Special to the Dispatch—

Little Falls, Minn., Feb. 1—A wholesale robbery was frustrated here last night when the police apprehended and took into custody two men who had raided the St. Paul store and had succeeded in getting $1200 worth of booty and were about to leave on the midnight train. Two men came in on the noon train from the south and registered at the West hotel under the names of T. J. Murphy and Lee Curtis. They carried two empty suit cases and their actions were so suspicious that the police watched their movements. At midnight the men left the West hotel, after having retired to their rooms shortly after supper, and made their way to the main part of the city. The local police shadowed them and watched them while they forcibly gained entrance to the St. Paul store. When they emerged from the store building they carried four suit cases instead of two and they were taken into custody as they were about to embark on a train for the Twin Cities. In the suit cases when examined by the officers was found kid gloves to the amount of $500 and bolts of silk valued at $700. The men said they would plead guilty when arraigned.

Gleaned from Herald of That Thriving Berg Telling of Things Interesting to Dispatch Readers
Miss Agnes Duffy returned to Brainerd Tuesday after a visit at her home here since Christmas.
Mrs. Raleigh McGuire was at Brainerd the latter part of last week and again this week with the little girl which is very ill. Dr. Jamieson has charge of the case.
T. H. Crosswell of the dam company was here the fore part of the week attending to matters connected with the building of their new plant here.
Word was received from the factory that the Herald's new cylinder newspaper press will be here so that we may use it to print next week's paper.
Mrs. C. J. Evensta and children of Brainerd, arrived the fore part of the week and went to their farm at Pillager Lake, where we understand, they will make their future home. The City Hotel at Brainerd of which Mr. Evensta was proprietor, was destroyed by fire last week.
The sympathy of the community is extended to County Commissioner W. B. Jones, whose father died last Saturday at Sauk Center. His father was past the eighty mark and his health had been failing for some time. The deceased was well known to Pillager people having been here numerous times on vacations.
The Herald neglected to mention last week that Mr. and Mrs. Peter Yde of Sylvan, had gone to Florida to spend the winter. They left the fore part of last week. Mr. Yde is the well-known Sylvan merchant, postmaster, land agent, and summer-resort man, and well entitled to a deserved vacation. Their friends wish them a very pleasant time. They will be gone three months. Mr. Yde owns some Florida land, and they will inspect this while gone.

If you are a friend of the birds remember that the heavy snows and the extreme cold weather make it extremely hard for them to find enough to eat. When you remember this, if you are kindly disposed, you will provide a box on a tree in which grain or suet should be placed for the feathered friends at such intervals as will tide them over until they are able to hustle for themselves again. It just costs a little time and trouble—and the birds will appreciate it.

Seventy Men at Work Shoveling the "Beautiful" on Flats. Later Unloaded Near Bridge

THE HEAVIEST SNOW IN YEARS

Snow Will Soon Have to be Removed From Gutters of Streets in Business Section

As an aftermath of the big snow-storm which had Brainerd in its grip, comes snow shoveling. In the yards of the Northern Pacific railway company 70 men are working in two crews shoveling the "beautiful" on flat cars.

A little switch engine puffs and toils away, hauling a dozen at a time to a point near the Mississippi river bridge where the snow is dumped.

"We're shipping snow to New Orleans," said Pete Wolvert. "It will all float down the Mississippi in the spring."

In the city some teams are hauling away snow from blockaded portions of streets in the business section. The movement will soon be general to haul away the snow now blocking the gutters. Carpenters are repairing leaky roofs throughout the city. Householders are shoveling snow from the roofs.

OUTRAGEOUS ACTS CHARGED

To Enforcers of Liquor Law in Northern Minnesota by Congressman Chipperfield of Illinois

WOMAN'S BAGGAGE SEARCHED

Mr. Chipperfield Produced Indian Agent Thomason's Card—Indian Bill Debate is On

A dispatch from the Duluth Herald Washington bureau dated Washington, January 31, gives out this information relative to Congressman-at-large Chipperfield of Illinois, who with a party of relatives and friends visited Minnesota last summer and came in contact with Indian law enforcement. As Congressman Chipperfield formerly resided in Brainerd, and visits this section of Minnesota every year for his annual outing, the statement will be interesting. The dispatch says:

Charges that officers of the Indian bureau performed outrageous acts in the administration of the Indian liquor law in Minnesota were made by Representative Chipperfield of Illinois in the debate on the Indian bill in the house today. Mr. Chipperfield declared that one of these officials, W. Thomason, had opened the baggage of a friend of his daughter, while she was at the railroad station at Duluth and spread her most intimate and personal belongings.

"When I protested against the outrageous conduct," he said, "I was told by the Indian bureau that the deputies charged with the enforcement of the anti-liquor law were doing this and would continue to do it regardless of the personal feelings of the travelers. Somewhat the same procedure has been followed by the customs officers in Northern Minnesota. This matter is not political, as the same things were done while the Republicans were in power."

Mr. Chipperfield produced Thomason's card, which contained the following: "You can't always, perhaps not even often, tell by the looks of a well-said suitcase, what may be inside, and it's always interesting, at least, and sometimes exciting, to look in and find out."

The Town System is Costing Brainerd More than the County System in Caring for Poor

After several years experience Brainerd is ascertaining that the town system of caring for the poor, as now carried out in Brainerd, is more expensive to taxpayers than was the old county system.

In the year 1915 there was expended $2,004.75 for the care of the poor as shown by warrants or orders on file. The number of applications during the year (including old cases aided) was 52. The number of persons assisted, counting all members of families, was 65.

In 1914 there was expended $1,411.26 for the relief of the poor. There were 21 applicants and the number of persons relieved, counting all members of families, was 23.

In the report made the state authorities there is asked the question: "Do you prefer the town system to the county system of caring for the poor?" and the city clerk answered: "No, as we find a great many applicants applying for aid that would not go to the poor farm." In 1915 the answer to the question was "Decidedly not."

For the benefit of readers the Dispatch prints the 1914 and 1915 poor relief reports, showing the increase in expenditures:

HIS WESTERN TRIP

In Reviewing Same, P. B. Nettleton Says Brainerd's Prospects Excel Any Other Town

To the Editor:

Answering some inquiries as to anything of public interest that I might have observed during my recent trip to the Pacific coast, principally at Seattle, I will note first that in comparison with any town I saw on the trip, big or little, Brainerd's prospects equal any and excels most of them. Real estate is still very low here and the chances of any home seeker either in town or country getting a home where he can eventually be independent at prices and terms he can afford are better here than in any place I saw. Much real estate in the west is highly inflated in price. In Brainerd and Crow Wing county this objection does not exist. We are also less subject to calamities such as cyclones, floods, etc. So on the whole we should be thankful.

The entire distance from Seattle to Brainerd is a vast snow field—more than I have ever seen before. This however augurs well for the coming crop year.

I again noticed many signs along the railroad towns advertising the advantages and opportunities around about. I strongly advocate more publicity of this sort in and about Brainerd.

In Seattle January first I witnessed the spectacle of a 399,000 city going dry. There was great rejoicing on the part of those who had voted dry and a corresponding depression on the part of those who favored the former status. Except as to those personally interested in the traffic, business moved on as before. Many saloons were changed into restaurants and places for the sale of non-intoxicants.

The big hotels almost without exception, retain their bars as usual, except they cut out intoxicants and add non-intoxicants of great variety and some of them of large conversational value.

Personally, I had a most enjoyable and delightful trip and visit with my folks whom I found well.

Seattle has been somewhat depressed for a few years but is gaining now and still expects to be a world city with its unequalled harbor, mild climate and great ship-

"ANURIC!" THE NEWEST DISCOVERY IN CHEMISTRY

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Doctor Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid that can be compared to it. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "Anuric" acts. The best of results are always obtained in cases of acute rheumatism in the joints, in gravel and gout, and invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

Go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "Anuric," manufactured by Dr. Pierce, or even write Doctor Pierce for a free sample. If you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, send him a sample of your water and describe symptoms. Doctor Pierce's chemist will examine it, then Dr. Pierce will report to you, without fee or charge.

NOTE:—French scientists affirm that "Anuric" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid, and is a harmless but reliable chemical compound that may be safely given to children, but should be used only by grown-ups who actually wish to restore their kidneys to perfect health, by conscientiously using one box—or more in extreme cases—as "Anuric" (thanks to Doctor Pierce's achievement) is by far the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector obtainable.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the original little Liver Pills. One little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink.

SENATE DEFEATS ONE AMENDMENT

Rejects McCumber Addition to Philippine Bill.

AGREES TO RUSH MEASURE

Daily Sessions Will Be Extended and Recesses Taken Instead of Adjourning So All Other Business Will Be Shut Out Until Bill Is Disposed Of.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The McCumber amendment to the Philippine bill, which would withhold independence from the Filipinos unless the powers agree to respect their sovereignty, was defeated in the senate without a roll call.

The senate agreed to hurry the bill to a vote by extending daily sessions and recessing instead of adjourning, so all other business would be shut out until it is disposed of.

An effort by Senator Hitchcock to limit all speeches to ten minutes was blocked by an objection from Senator Cummings.

Senator Clapp of Minnesota declared during the debate that he believed the Filipinos were ready for their independence at once.

"There is a menace in holding the islands," he continued, "but it is a menace to the Filipinos themselves."

Senator Sutherland disagreed as to the readiness of the islands for independence, declaring that to relinquish them now would "be a cowardly act."

Senator Hitchcock withdrew his amendment and substituted an amendment to the amendment of Senator Clarke, providing for granting independence within four years.

The Hitchcock proposal would make it optional whether the United States should reserve naval bases and coaling stations in the Philippines and would eliminate the provision that the United States alone guarantee to respect the sovereignty of the islands in event the powers should decline to do so.

BASED ON PRUSSIAN PLAN

Senator Nelson Favors Increasing
Standing Army.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The establishment of an army of 1,000,000 men in five years, 200,000 to be with the colors with pay each year, and the balance to serve in the reserve without pay, was advocated by Senator Nelson before the senate committee on military affairs at a hearing on the army bill.

The senator said he had given the subject considerable thought and that his idea of an army was based somewhat upon the history of the Prussian army following the Napoleonic war early in the nineteenth century.

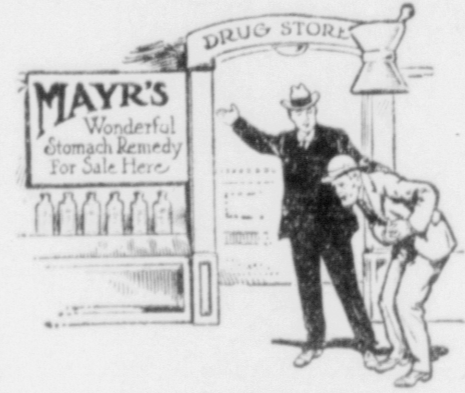

"We can build up an army of 1,000,000 men in this country," Senator Nelson said, "without enforcing universal military training. Under my plan the standing army would be recruited to 200,000 men, who should serve with pay under the colors."

Mean Thing.

Elise—Maude's face is her fortune.
Alice—My dear, you mean misfortune, don't you?—Judge.
